1. SHANE HUMPHREYS (“Plaintiff”) brings this Class Action Complaint for damages, injunctive relief, and any other available legal or equitable remedies, resulting from the illegal actions of WINDHAM PROFESSIONALS, INC. (“Defendant”) in negligently and/or willfully contacting Plaintiff on Plaintiff’s cellular telephone, in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 et seq., (“TCPA”), thereby invading Plaintiff’s privacy. Plaintiff alleges as follows upon personal knowledge as to himself and his own acts and experiences, and, as to all other matters, upon information and belief, including investigation conducted by his attorneys.

2. The TCPA was designed to prevent calls and text messages like the ones described herein, and to protect the privacy of citizens like Plaintiff. “Voluminous consumer

1 complaints about abuses of telephone technology – for example, computerized calls dispatched
2 to private homes – prompted Congress to pass the TCPA.” Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC,
3 132 S. Ct. 740, 744 (2012).

4       3. In enacting the TCPA, Congress intended to give consumers a choice as to how
5 corporate similar entities may contact them, and made specific findings that “[t]echnologies
6 that might allow consumers to avoid receiving such calls are not universally available, are 7 costly, are unlikely to be enforced, or place an inordinate burden on the consumer. TCPA,
8 Pub.L. No. 102–243, § 11. In support of this, Congress found that

9                   [b]anning such automated or prerecorded telephone calls to the 10 home, except when the receiving party consents to receiving the 11 call or when such calls are necessary in an emergency situation
12 affecting the health and safety of the consumer, is the only 13 effective means of protecting telephone consumers from this nuisance and privacy invasion.

14 Id. at § 12; see also Martin v. Leading Edge Recovery Solutions, LLC, 2012 WL 3292838, at* 4
15 (N.D.Ill. Aug. 10, 2012) (citing Congressional findings on TCPA’s purpose).

16       4. Congress also specifically found that “the evidence presented to the Congress
17 indicates that automated or prerecorded calls are a nuisance and an invasion of privacy,
18 regardless of the type of call....” Id. at §§ 12-13. See also, Mims, 132 S. Ct. at 744.

19       5. As Judge Easterbrook of the Seventh Circuit recently explained in a TCPA case
20 regarding calls to a non-debtor similar to this one:

21                   The Telephone Consumer Protection Act ... is well known for 22 its provisions limiting junk-fax transmissions. A less-litigated
23 part of the Act curtails the use of automated dialers and 24 prerecorded messages to cell phones, whose subscribers often are 25 billed by the minute as soon as the call is answered—and routing
26 a call to voicemail counts as answering the call. An automated call to a landline phone can be an annoyance; an automated call to a cell phone adds expense to annoyance.

27 Soppet v. Enhanced Recovery Co., LLC, 679 F.3d 637, 638 (7th Cir. 2012).
28

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has federal question jurisdiction because this case arises out of violations of federal law. 47 U.S.C. § 227(b); Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 132 S. Ct. 740 (2012).

7. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2), because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in this district; Plaintiff is a resident of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, which falls within the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a citizen and resident of the State of Pennsylvania. Plaintiff is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a "person" as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (10).

9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendant is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a corporation whose State of Incorporation and principal place of business is in the State of New Hampshire. Defendant, is and at all times mentioned herein was, a corporation and is a "person," as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (10). Plaintiff alleges that at all times relevant herein Defendant conducted business in the State of Pennsylvania and in the County of Westmoreland, within this judicial district.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. Beginning in or about March 2014, Defendant started placing telephone calls to Plaintiff's cellular telephone.

11. Defendant placed an average of 2 – 3 calls per day to Plaintiff from, among others, telephone numbers (866) 276-0189, (209) 858-3500, (724) 925-9300, (724) 480-3069, (458) 201-0519, (972) 509-5466, and (855) 267-6944.

12. The calls Defendant placed to Plaintiff's cellular phone were placed via an "automatic telephone dialing system," ("ATDS") as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227 (a)(1), as

1 prohibited by 47 U.S.C. § 227 (b)(1)(A), or an artificial or prerecorded voice, as also prohibited
2 by 47 U.S.C. §227(b)(1)(A).

3 13. Plaintiff has answered the telephone on at least one occasion and asked
4 Defendant to stop its incessant telephone calls, but Defendant has continued its efforts
5 undeterred.

6 14. In addition to never having provided Defendant with his telephone number,
7 Plaintiff revoked permission to call his telephone via ATDS when he asked Defendant to stop
8 during earlier communications.

9 15. The telephone number that Defendant or its agents called was assigned to a
10 cellular telephone service for which Plaintiff incurs a charge for incoming calls pursuant to 47
11 U.S.C. § 227 (b)(1).

12 16. These telephone calls constituted calls that were not for emergency purposes as 13 defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227 (b)(1)(A)(i).

14 17. Plaintiff never provided any personal information, including his cellular 15 telephone number to Defendant. At no time did Plaintiff provide Defendant or its agents with 16 prior express consent to receive telephone calls from an ATDS or an artificial or prerecorded
17 voice, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227 (b)(1)(A).

18 18. These telephone calls by Defendant, or its agents, violated 47 U.S.C. §
19 227(b)(1).
20

21 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

22 19. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and on behalf of and all others
23 similarly situated (“the Class”).

24 20. Plaintiff represents, and is a member of, the Class, consisting of:

25 All persons within the United States who received any 26 telephone call(s) from Defendant, or its agent(s) and/or 27 employee(s), to said person’s cellular telephone, made
28 through the use of any automatic telephone dialing system, or an artificial or prerecorded voice, within the four years prior to the filing of the Complaint.

2       21. Defendant and its employees or agents are excluded from the Class. Plaintiff
3 does not know the number of members in the Class, but believes the Class members number in 4 the thousands, if not more. Thus, this matter should be certified as a Class action to assist in 5 the expeditious litigation of this matter.

6       22. Plaintiff and members of the Class were harmed by the acts of Defendant in at 7 least the following ways: Defendant, either directly or through its agents, illegally contacted
8 Plaintiff and the Class members via their cellular telephones, thereby causing Plaintiff and the 9 Class members to incur certain cellular telephone charges or reduce cellular telephone time for 10 which Plaintiff and the Class members previously paid, and invading the privacy of said
11 Plaintiff and the Class members. Plaintiff and the Class members were damaged thereby.

12       23. This suit seeks only damages and injunctive relief for recovery of economic 13 injury on behalf of the Class, and it expressly is not intended to request any recovery for 14 personal injury and claims related thereto. Plaintiff reserves the right to expand the Class
15 definition to seek recovery on behalf of additional persons as warranted as facts are learned in 16 further investigation and discovery.

17       24. The joinder of the Class members is impractical and the disposition of their 18 claims in the Class action will provide substantial benefits both to the parties and to the court.
19 The Class can be identified through Defendant's records or Defendant's agents' records.

20       25. There is a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact
21 involved affecting the parties to be represented. The questions of law and fact to the Class
22 predominate over questions which may affect individual Class members, including the 23 following:
24

- 25       a) Whether, within the four years prior to the filing of this Complaint, Defendant or 26 its agents placed any calls to the Class (other than a call made for emergency
27 purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) or to a Class
28

1 member using any automatic dialing system, or an artificial or prerecorded
2 voice, to any telephone number assigned to a cellular phone service;

- 3 b) Whether Plaintiff and the Class members were damaged thereby, and the extent
4 of damages for such violation; and
5 c) Whether Defendant and its agents should be enjoined from engaging in such 6 conduct in the future.

7 26. As a person that received calls from Defendant via an automated telephone
8 dialing system without Plaintiff's prior express consent, Plaintiff is asserting claims that are 9 typical of the Class. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of 10 the Class in that Plaintiff has no interests antagonistic to any member of the Class.

11 27. Plaintiff and the members of the Class have all suffered irreparable harm as a 12 result of the Defendant's unlawful and wrongful conduct. Absent a class action, the Class will 13 continue to face the potential for irreparable harm. In addition, these violations of law will be 14 allowed to proceed without remedy and Defendant will likely continue such illegal conduct.
15 Because of the size of the individual Class member's claims, few, if any, Class members could 16 afford to seek legal redress for the wrongs complained of herein.

17 28. Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in handling class action claims and 18 claims involving violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act.

19 29. A class action is a superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this 20 controversy. Class-wide damages are essential to induce Defendant to comply with federal and 21 state law. The interest of Class members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate
22 claims against Defendant is small because the maximum statutory damages in an individual
23 action for violation of privacy are minimal. Management of these claims is likely to present
24 significantly fewer difficulties than those presented in many class claims.

25 30. Defendant has acted on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby 26 making appropriate final injunctive relief and corresponding declaratory relief with respect to 27 the Class as a whole.
28

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

39. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to and seek injunctive relief prohibiting such conduct in the future.
